Living The Cross Centered Life

In his book, Living the Cross Centered Life, C.J. Mahaney reminds us the words of Paul that the cross is the only essential tenet of our faith (1 Corinthians 15.1,3). And he suggests that we face constant temptation to move away from that essential in three common areas: subjectivism, legalism, and condemnation. (p. 16). Mahaney writes:

Living the Cross-Centered Life Study Guide

It's time to get back to the starting point of the Christian life—the cross of Christ. Jesus' work on your behalf must be the central motivation for your life and faith—the main thing. "Never move on," says C.J. Mahaney, who shows you how to center every day around the cross of Calvary and how to escape the pitfalls of legalism, condemnation, and feelings-driven faith.

As I highlighted in yesterday's post, Living the Cross Centered Life is deficient because Mahaney equates the gospel with the "death of the Savior on the cross", leaving one with an incomplete picture of the gospel. Sadly, the resurrection of Jesus Christ is marginalized at best or totally ignored at worst.
